2012 Summer Teacher Institute on the Maya Antigua, Guatemala Application

General Information
The Stone Center for Latin American Studies’ Latin American Resource Center draws upon Tulane University’s extensive resources to develop and implement programs, services, and resources designed to advance understanding of international and world regional issues through outreach to education, business, media, and the public. LARC has been designated a Title VI National Resource Center on Latin America for international and foreign language education by the U.S. Department of Education, in providing public access to materials and resources developed by our programs to teachers and educational organizations nationally.

Application deadline is April 27, 2012.
Applications received after April 27, 2012 will be accepted only if space is available. Applications are processed on a rolling basis as received. Applicants accepted for the program will be notified ASAP and will receive further information about the registration for the Summer Institute at that time.
