SIGNS OF CHANGE:
A Glimpse of Past & Present Cultural Landscapes of Guatemala
Travel to and explore the colonial town of Antigua. In learning about Guatemalan culture, language, and history, teachers will visit a traditional highland market in Chichicastenango, explore the coffee farms of Finca La Azotea, hike around ancient Maya ruins of Tikal and relax around Lake Atitlán. This institute is designed to engage educators in the culture, language, and geography of the Maya through travel and curriculum development.

$1400 ten day trip includes all in country expenses. Participants are responsible for air travel to Guatemala City, passport fees and international medical insurance.

TO APPLY FOR THIS PROGRAM:
Visit: http://stonecenter.tulane.edu/summer2012
Please contact crcrts@tulane.edu or 504.862.3143 for additional information.

Registration deadline is April 27, 2012

A Glimpse of Past & Present Cultural Landscapes of Guatemala
Antigua, Guatemala July 25th–August 3rd, 2012
Summer Teacher Institute on the Maya

SIGNS OF CHANGE: