

New Immigrants of New Orleans: A Socio-Legal Panel Discussion

Join the World Affairs Council of New Orleans for an educational panel discussion on the social and legal issues facing our new immigrant community in a post-Katrina world!

Date: April 12, 2011
Time: 6:00 pm - 8:00 pm
Parking: Free on Tulane University's Campus after 6:00 pm Charge: Free to the public (suggested donation = $1- $5)
Location: The Roger Thayer Stone Center for Latin American Studies, Tulane University, Building 25
Moderator: Jimmy Huck
Panel: Marvin Clifford
Martin Gutierrez
Laila Hlass
M. Isabel Medina
Vanessa Spinazola

For more information, contact us at wacno.president@gmail.com

WACNO is a non-profit, non-partisan educational organization dedicated to presenting diverse views on a variety of international topics to the Greater New Orleans Area

Visit our sponsors online at: www.wacno.org
stonecenter.tulane.edu

Panelists will speak on legal and socio-cultural issues new immigrants in the New Orleans area face, focusing on the contributions of new immigrants and their culture to the rebuilding of New Orleans. There will be a Q&A session after completion of the panel's presentations.

Seating is limited, reserve your spot early. To register, visit www.wacno.org to be taken to our online ticketing system.

CLE:

The CLE application has been submitted. Approval is PENDING. If you are interested in obtaining legal CLE: (1) register online at www.wacno.org, and (2) once you receive confirmation of registration, send your name, license number and confirmation number to wacno.president@gmail.com by noon April 11, 2011, for additional instructions.